The Application Process

Applicant submits a completed:

- Business Plan and Business Loan Application
- Documentation is reviewed by staff
- Staff and applicant have discussions to clarify points in business plan or application as needed
- Application is presented to NSCFDC Loan Review Committee for approval
- If approved, a Letter of Offer is extended to the applicant for signature and returned to NSCFDC
- Legal work and security documentation is prepared by legal counsel as chosen by the NSCFDC at the expense of the applicant
- Funds are normally made available within 1-5 weeks after the Letter of Offer is returned to NSCFDC (depending on the type of legal registrations required to process the loan)

Costs

- There is a $50.00 application fee
- Applicants are responsible for all legal costs associated with registering security for NSCFDC's loan as well as a loan processing fee (referenced on page 1). These funds can be deducted from the proceeds of the loan.

Loan Information

- Maximum loan amount is $150,000.00. Loans can be used for the purchase of fixed assets, leasehold improvements, inventory, expansion, start-up or working capital or a combination of the items listed. Debt consolidation will be considered based on the objectives outlined in the business plan.
- Loans over $150,000 will be given consideration based on the number of jobs being created or maintained and the collateral being offered for the loan
- Competitive interest rates are offered. Rates offered are determined on a loan by loan basis
- Flexible repayment terms and no prepayment penalties

Criteria

Some specific financing criteria must be met, including but not limited to:

- Employment creation or maintenance for predominantly local residents
- Location of business MUST be in the North Simcoe region (Midland, Penetanguishene, Beausoleil First Nation, and Townships of Springwater, Tiny or Tay)
- Reasonable personal financial investment in the business
- Ability to repay the loan
- Future economic viability of the business must be shown
- Competent management
- Collateral must be provided for the loan

Things to Remember...

1. Make sure you have completed each section of the application in detail.
2. Make sure you have signed pages 5 and 6.
3. Include items that assist the Lending Officer in understanding your application. Remember, the Lending Officer has to understand your idea well enough to explain it to the Loan Review Committee on your behalf. Items such as lease agreements, offers of purchase, accounts payable listings, accounts receivables listings, current financial statements, and of course, your completed business plan should be attached to this application.

Your Business Plan should include:

- ✓ An executive summary
- ✓ Description of the industry – outlook, trends, markets, size of market
- ✓ Description of business venture – product / service, target market, competitive advantages, brief history
- ✓ Business and personal goals
- ✓ Marketing plans - sales strategy, distribution, pricing and promotions
- ✓ Sales forecasts - price lists, break even analysis
- ✓ Production plans - how, where, cost to produce, raw material suppliers, inventory needs
- ✓ Corporate structure - organization charts, principle shareholders, key staff and management
- ✓ Risk assessment - what will competitors do when you open, contingency plans
- ✓ Financial records, cash flows, income statements, balance sheets, projections
- ✓ Photos, diagrams, designs, layouts, maps
- ✓ Copies of major contracts, leases, partnerships agreements, franchise document, letters of intent, etc.

Have you considered...

- ✓ Business Registration
- ✓ Business license (s), health and building inspections, WSIB, Insurance
- ✓ Building Permit
- ✓ HST
- ✓ EI Costs
